

POLITICIANS HAD ONE GREAT NIGHT

Fretted and Fumed and Then Cheered as Returns Came Flowing In.

RACE FOR FIFTH PLACE

Conceded Election of Four Leaders Early in Evening. No Disorder Anywhere.

For a period of three hours last night the politics of the city focused at the City Auditorium. Between 7:30 o'clock and midnight practically every politician in town paid a dutiful visit to the City Democratic Committee, which presided proudly upon the platform as official sponsor for the night.

From 7:30 people at 7:30 o'clock the crowd increased to 2,000 by 11 o'clock, when the auditorium held its largest number. With the approach of midnight the crowd began to thin, scarcely 300 people left from members of the City Democratic Committee, remained in the hall when the long-awaited second precinct of Madison Ward reported a half hour before midnight.

First Report at 8:20 o'clock.

Murmurs of impatience arose from every part of the hall as the hours dragged by with no reports to cheer or distract. The absence of official figures, a number that were not official were widely circulated. The first official report came from the fifth precinct of Lee Ward at 8:15 o'clock. The news spread like a rumor from members of the City Democratic Committee, remained in the hall when the long-awaited second precinct of Madison Ward reported a half hour before midnight.

The report was tabled for fifteen minutes longer, while Chairman Miles M. Martin of the City Democratic Committee waited for a quorum to call the meeting to order. The quorum finally assembled at 8:45 o'clock, when the report was given to the public. It was followed five minutes later by the second precinct of Jefferson Ward. After that the reports came thick and fast, and the crowd ceased to grumble.

Warned Not to Cheer.

Clyde W. Saunders, before beginning the reading of the votes, warned the audience that no cheering would be permitted. The order worked like a charm for the fifth precinct, but was generally disregarded. The cheering was particularly noisy, and took every opportunity to show their enthusiasm. The cheering continued until the election of the candidates.

With five more precincts to hear from at 10:30 o'clock, the crowd was waiting fifteen minutes for additional returns, left the auditorium. The cheering was particularly noisy, and took every opportunity to show their enthusiasm. The cheering continued until the election of the candidates.

The Last Tally.

With the announcement of the official returns by Secretary W. G. Duke, of the City Democratic Committee, who read the returns from the last precinct, the cheering was particularly noisy, and took every opportunity to show their enthusiasm. The cheering continued until the election of the candidates.

The motion was put by Chairman Martin, and was carried. The cheering was particularly noisy, and took every opportunity to show their enthusiasm. The cheering continued until the election of the candidates.

ANXIOUS CROWDS AWAIT RETURNS

Bulletins Quickly Flashed by The Times-Dispatch in Main Street.

One thousand people stood for three hours last night in front of the business office of The Times-Dispatch, waiting the returns from the Administrative Board election. Cheers from the supporters of each candidate greeted the posting of the bulletins from each ward. A number of women who were present were no less enthusiastic than the men, and kept talking and shouting the results, writing on the shoulders of their escorts.

The first bulletin was put up at 8:20 o'clock. The last came at 11:30. During the early part of the evening the number waiting the bulletins was far larger than after 10 o'clock, by which time the leaders of the ticket were fairly well fixed. When the returns from the first precinct of Madison Ward, the last to be received, were placed in the window "there was a mounting in hot haste." Men hastily put figures down in memorandum books and ran for cars. By 11:45 the crowd was gone.

The crowd in front of The Times-Dispatch building was probably second only to that gathered in the City Auditorium. The returns were received as quickly as the votes were counted at the polling places, and the results were known on Main Street earlier than at the Auditorium.

The cheering in the street was as cosmopolitan as at the larger place. Even small boys were as industriously tabulating votes. Out of deference to the buried hopes of the defeated, the street cars stopped their going monotonously in passing the place, and crowded along between Ninth and Tenth Streets.

Will Make Joint Canvass.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Spencer, N. C. September 10.—(By D. B. Reynolds, the Republican nominee for Congress in the Eighth District, today notified J. D. Dorsett, of Spencer, a member of the Senate and congressional committee, that he will accept the challenge of his opponent, Congressman R. L. Doughton, for a joint canvass of the district. Mr. Reynolds says he is glad to accommodate Mr. Doughton in the matter of joint debate. He asked Mr. Dorsett to arrange a conference with Mr. Doughton in Salisbury at an early date.

MEMBERS OF THE NEW ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

ELBEN C. FOLKES.

ROBERT WHITTET, JR.

CARLTON MCCARTHY.

JOHN HIRSCHBERG.

HENRY P. BECK.

Elben C. Folkles, for some time a member of the State Senate from the city of Richmond, is an attorney at law by profession—the only lawyer to enter the race for the Administrative Board. Mr. Folkles began his business career in Richmond as an apprentice at the old Haaker & Marcus factory, now the American Can Company, serving his trade and forming an affiliation with labor which he has retained throughout his career. He served three terms in the House of Delegates before being elected to the State Senate. While he has never had official connection with the city government, Mr. Folkles showed by his platform issued to voters a close study of the conditions and needs of the community. As a personal campaigner in calling upon voters, he has set a pace which few candidates would care to follow. He was the first to announce a policy of co-operation with members of the Common Council and Board of Aldermen for the building of Richmond, admitting that without such harmony of operation, little could be accomplished. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1911, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1912. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1913, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1914. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1915, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1916. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1917, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1918. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1919, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1920. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1921, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1922. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1923, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1924. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1925, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1926. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1927, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1928. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1929, and was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1930.
